CHICAGO, IL (February 18, 2009) Hillside Town Center, a 350,000 square foot power center located in the Chicago near-west suburb of Hillside, Illinois and anchored by Super Target, will celebrate its Grand Opening on Sunday, March 8, 2009.

Sierra Realty Advisors' Joe Grody represented the Landlord, Metro Commons, LLC, in leasing the shopping center. Tenants include Super Target, Petco, Michaels, Staples, The RoomPlace (by Harlem Furniture), Panda Express, Qdoba Mexican Grill, American Mattress, Visionworks, GameStop, and Sally Beauty.

Hillside Town Center is located on Mannheim Road, directly off Interstate 290 (Eisenhower Expressway) and has incredible visibility. Interstate 290 is the main artery into downtown Chicago (only 13 miles away) from the near-west suburbs and surrounding areas. There are more than 259,000 vehicles traveling on the stretch of highway every day where Hillside Town Center is poised.

"Hillside Town Center is one of the most visible shopping centers in the Chicago market", said Sierra's Joe Grody. "Elevated above the Eisenhower Expressway makes this shopping center a virtual billboard!"
